

Contemporary Trends in Korean Traditional Music

Jan. 17, 2020 | Friday Shreve Auditorium, GA 0001 12pm - 1:30pm

This talk and performance will explore Korean music culture and key new works and trends in fresh interpretations of tradition in the 21st century.

Hilary Finchum-Sung

Executive Director, Association for Asian Studies

Dr Finchum-Sung is a Korean music specialist with research interests in sustainable practice in traditional Korean music performance, musical genealogies, gender roles and performance, and emotion embodied through sound.

Ji-young Yi

Professor of Gayageum

Performance, Department of Korean Music, Seoul National University
Dr. Yi is also Music Director of the Gimhae Municipal Gayageum Orchestra and was the first PhD in gayageum performance in Korean music history.

This event is cosponsored by the East Asian Studies Center

Light lunch will be provided.

HAMILTON LUGAR

SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
Institute for Korean Studies

FOLKLORE AND ETHNOMUSICOLOGY